

03/12

Ecosystem Vocabulary

#1

Agenda

- Finish the movie
- Apply the vocab to an ecosystem.

Take out the pink sheet from thursday

Look at question 7 answer this question in your journal. (include abiotic factors)

Exit goal

Feel confident about using the new vocabulary

We will finish the movie and you will have the opportunity to finish the questions.

3/12	Ecosystem Vocabulary	#1
	Individual	Examples
	population
	Community
	Abiotic Factors

Learning Target: I can identify biotic, abiotic, individual, population and communities in an ecosystem.

03/12 Ecosystem Vocabulary #1

Pond Ecosystem;
Boundaries are the waters edge

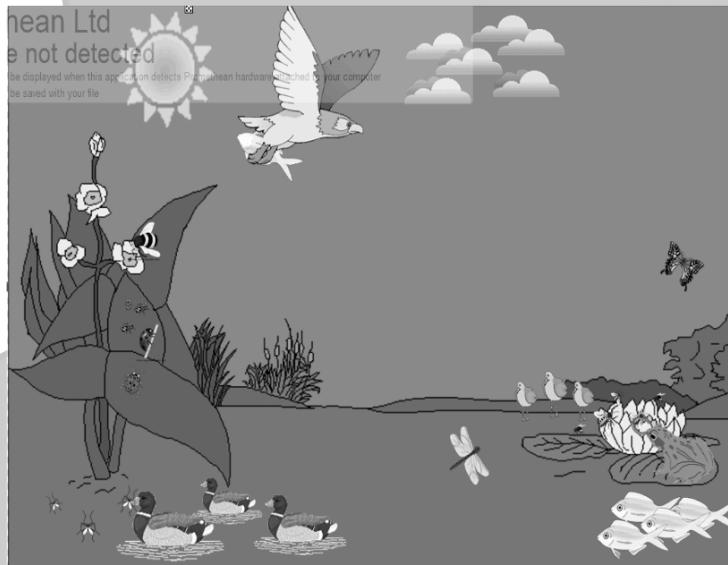

In your journal list:

- 3 individuals
- 3 Populations
- 2 communities
- 2 abiotic factors

Learning Target: I can identify biotic, abiotic, individual, population and communities in an ecosystem.

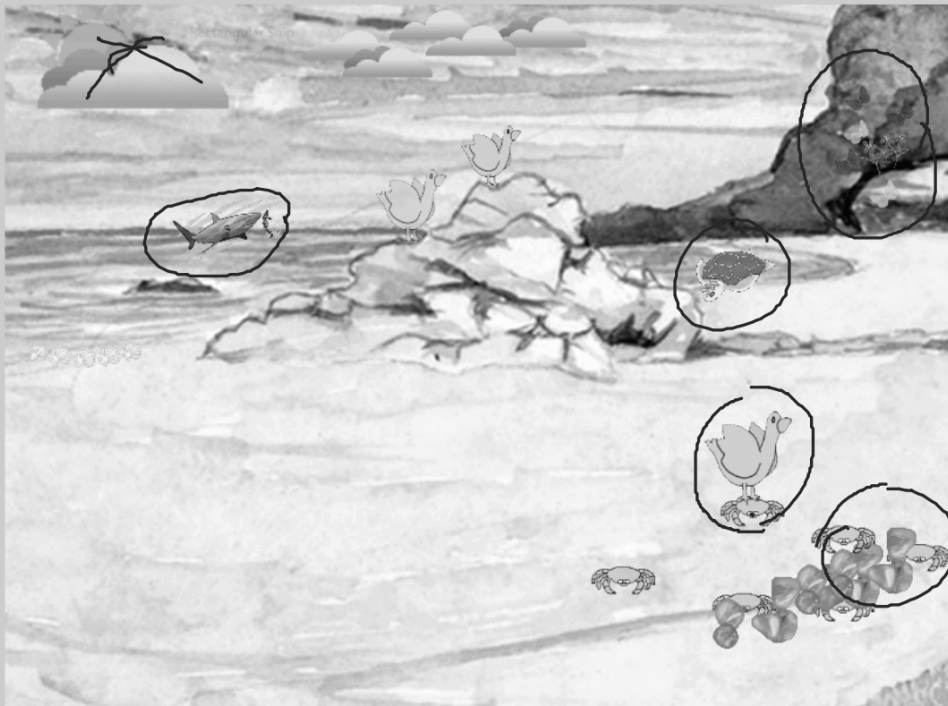

In your group:
- Explain the interactions in the communities.

Learning Target: I can identify biotic, abiotic, individual, population and communities in an ecosystem.

03/12

Ecosystem Vocabulary #1

Tidal Ecosystem: Boundaries are ocean and shore up to the grassy edge.

Learning Target: I can identify biotic, abiotic, individual, population and communities in an ecosystem.

03/12

Ecosystem Vocabulary #1

wetland Ecosystem:
Boundaries are the water and water edge to the trees.

Learning Target: I can identify biotic, abiotic, individual, population and communities in an ecosystem.

03/12

Ecosystem Vocabulary #1

Ocean ecosystem:
Boundaries are under the water.

Learning Target: I can identify biotic, abiotic, individual, population and communities in an ecosystem.

03/12

Ecosystem Vocabulary #1

Write your codes.

Put the paper on my desk and pick up a book.

Quietly read the pages 6 and 7
"Life in the Community"

Learning Target: I can identify biotic, abiotic, individual, population and communities in an ecosystem.

03/12

Ecosystems

#1

Agenda

-review the vocab
-Apply the vocab to an ecosystem.

Exit goal

Feel confident about using the new vocabulary

How well do you think you have reached the learning target for today?

Bullseye! Got it.

Almost. Need some practice

Got a way to go yet

Learning Target: I can identify biotic, abiotic, individual, population and communities in an ecosystem.