

Question 1: Level 1

When rocks are broken down in the mountains it is called?

Question 2: Level 1

What mineral will fizz when in contact with acid?

Question 3: Level 1

A rock that fizzes on contact with acid is..

Question 4: Level 1

A rock that is made from clay and silt and has plant fossils is

Question 5: Level 1

A large nearly level area of land that has been uplifted is called

Question 6: Level 1

What do geologists draw to show a sequence of rocks?

Question 7: Level 1

geologists take a rock ___and note where it comes from.

Question 8: Level 1

flat deposits of rock that cover a large area are called?

Question 9: Level 1

A relationship or connection between layers in more than 1 location is called a--

Question 10: Level 1

material broken down by weathering and erosion is called?

Question 11: Level 1

fossils that help geologists determine the age of rock layers are called